Panel Chairman Barry Preston is seeking names of fellows for inclusion on the Adjudicators Panel. This is a completely voluntary activity with no minimum or maximum number of debates that you have to attend.

Very detailed marking sheets are available to assist in the correct marking. It is not a difficult task but certainly one that is appreciated by Apex Clubs. Barry's phone No. is on the front page. He would like to here from you please.

7. IN PASSING

Some people go to a lot of trouble just to get their picture in the news. Yes one of our own members has been guilty of a 5 column by half page spread on Page 3 of the Melbourne Age on Friday July 28. The article includes a photo of the Vet wielding an axe attempting to cut a toe nail on the right hind leg of a 4000 lb. bullock named Santa. After 2 days Santa won and the Vet has gone away to think about what to do next.

Should further reports come to hand this magazine will keep you posted. In the meantime our Veterinary Member better bring plenty of money to our next dinner, without any anaesthetics or axe th nkyou.
