Last Dinner: Our Election Night was quite a success in Rosemary's "Soup Kitchen". All those male chauvinists will be disappointed to know the wretched females have taken over -- for the ensuing year anyway. There was a remarkable display of crazy hats, the prizes going to Marj Flaherty and Ian Goff. -- I believe Ian is wearing his prize to the next dinner -- weather permitting.

Bendigo Invasion: Our night out at The Swagman was met with mixed feelings. We thoroughly enjoyed the company of our Bendigo friends but some of us found the noise, the queueing for food and the jampacked tables just a trifle annoying. However the barbecue at the Ritchie's Chook Farm was a huge success -- Many thanks Lois and John. By the way, if you want to know how to titillate an ocelot ask Marianne Speirs.

Diary Date: 20th November 8.00 p.m. Bingo Night at Nadavoc for Margot Craig (Miss Nadraska). $6.00 per head for 20 games plus Supper. Cans available or B.Y.O. Drink. Nat. President Ern would like to see you all there with family and friends.

If you are not coming to Bundy's Lorraine and I wish you a merry xmas and hope the New Year brings greater prosperity and happiness. See you again in February -- more about that later.

Yours in Apex 40

Jean Goff
