Ring: Sec. Lorraine by Monday the 19th if you would like to come along and join in the fun, those who can come please bring your own soup bowl as well as your own drinks.

Elections: Yes, its that time again and the Election will be held at this dinner, also your Subs. are due and are still at $4 a head.

Last Dinner: I hope new members Ron and Janette Davies, John and Kath Buchanan and John and Pam Wakeford enjoyed their evening with us, I always feel that our meetings together get better all the time.

Progressive Dinner: Thanks to the "Kinders" and "Frazers" for the use of their homes and thanks also to all the ladies that helped with the food, I think everyone that attended will agree it was a marvellous night.

Bendigo 26 of us are off to Bendigo this weekend (another lost weekend I feel). I am told there is to be a showing by "M.G.M." of our Rort trip.

Message: Cyril Minns tells me there is a display of all equipment available for disabled persons, the last week in October at the Church of Christ hall Lyall Road, Berwick.

Bar-b-que Lunch: 1st November at Ken and Barbara Neate's holiday home at Red Hills see enclosed map, green colour and circle marks the spot for a great day.

Bookings: Those who haven't booked for our Christmas dinner at Muddy Creek, please do so as I have to have definite numbers by the next dinner.

Yours in Apex 40
