Labour Day Weekend. An excellent weekend of fellowship, good weather, golf, food and drink was enjoyed by a total of 31 members at Leigh and Shirl Garrett's and Don and Joyce Dick's. Some of us were fortunate to catch up with Fred Margetts on the golf course and some of the girls visited ~~Lola~~ Lola on Sunday morning. Some "early Reeds" played 18 holes of golf, while the "Snorers" played 9 holes and some "golfers" upset Mansfield's "LADY" captain. She said "we's don't know da rules." A visit to Powers Lookout on Sunday, pm, a counter tea Sunday night and a picnic lunch at Nillahcootie rounded off an excellent weekend. A BIG THANK-YOU to our hosts on the banks of an almost dry Lake Eildon.
